This policy is intended to document the appropriate reserve level to protect the City's credit worthiness. All funds reserves are accumulated and maintained to provide stability and flexibility to respond to unexpected adversity and/or opportunities, to address emergencies, and to address temporary revenue shortfall or provide stability during economic cycles. Sufficient reserve funds will be managed to provide adequate cash flow, stabilize the City's interest rates, and provide continuity in service delivery.

C. RESERVES. The objective of the City's reserve policy is to provide adequate working capital for cash flow and contingency purposes, while maintaining reasonable tax rates. This policy shall refer to both cash and investments owned by the City of Wabash, Indiana. All reserves shall be in accordance with all applicable Federal, State, City Policies, and the City Municipal Code (Code of Ordinances) requirements and law governing cash reserves. The City shall maintain adequate cash reserves in each fund to maintain a positive cash position at any time during a fiscal year.

D. REVIEW OF POLICY. The City's reserve policy is the guideline for City staff to use in creating and maintaining proper reserves for all City financial accounts. The policy shall be reviewed on an annual basis by the Clerk Treasurer. Any substantive modifications made to the policy must first be recommended by the Clerk-Treasurer to the City's Board of Finance and, upon approval, be submitted to the Common Council for the City of Wabash, Indiana for adoption by ordinance.

E. LIQUIDITY. In addition to matters pertaining to reserves set forth hereinabove, the City's policy must also adhere to important liquidity requirements. Liquidity is the amount of cash and/or "near cash" (which refers to assets or security that can easily and quickly be converted to cash), available to be utilized to meet obligations and/or pay commitments. The marketability or ability to buy or sell an asset without incurring unacceptable large losses thus determines the liquidity of an asset or defines it as near cash. Liquid assets are those that can be converted to cash quickly if needed to meet financial obligations; examples of liquid assets generally include cash, general and other funds reserves, and municipal debt. For the City of Wabash to remain viable, it must have sufficient liquid assets to meet its obligations. This liquidity policy sets forth the minimum risk management measures that the City has to implement and adhere to in order to ensure that its current and future liquidity position is managed in a prudent manner. As such, these provisions provide guidance on the minimum liquidity level that the City has to maintain in order to comply with required State, County, and local regulations or laws. The Liquidity requirements include the following key elements:

(3) All reserves stated by the City on its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) that have been established for the purposes of providing an annual transparent report to the public.

(4) Cognizance also needs to be taken of the external loan commitments and the servicing of capital and interest on these loans; therefore, provision should be made the City of Wabash can meet its external loan/financial commitments together with the normal operational expenditure, as well as its liabilities to staff.

(5) All investments ceded as security against long term loans need to be excluded from total cash and investment balances for calculation of the minimum liquidity level required.

(6) In addition, a level of cash available for normal operational expenditure needs to be held in cash to ensure that, notwithstanding fluctuations in the monthly income levels of City of Wabash, the City will be in a position to meet its financial requirements. In this respect, the average monthly operational expenditure needs to be used as a guide of the minimum buffer required. Two month's operational expenditure excluding debt impairments, depreciation and other non-cash expenses should be available for liquidity cover.

(7) The "golden rule" should be to ensure that the City of Wabash will have adequate liquid assets (those that can be made into cash within 24 hours, weekly or monthly as the requirements might be) to meet its short-term financial commitments.
