

My name is James Straws, and I am the new Building Commissioner for the City of Wabash. My career started here in Wabash County back in 1978 and after serving 30 years as a State Fire/Building Inspector I was given a great opportunity to return home so to speak and serve the city of Wabash. I am looking forward to my new duties and responsibilities.